

LearnHebrewPod.com

The first conversational Hebrew course by Podcasts
Learn to speak Hebrew as it is spoken in Israel

Lesson 1β Basic Introduction

Learn Hebrew Pod™
Language Fountain Ltd.
All rights reserved ©
contact@learnhebrewpod.com
www.learnhebrewpod.com

Jonathan: Hello and welcome to our first special subscribers' audio lesson. During this lesson and throughout our future programs we will be exploring and deepening our knowledge of the Hebrew language and the uniqueness of its grammar. We will provide you with some additional useful and necessary vocabulary as well as fun exercises. Both the extra vocabulary and mainly the special attention we are going to put into the grammar aspect of this audio lesson section are designed and dedicated for the purpose of enriching our Hebrew skills. Our anticipated goal, which we estimate, will be no less than having the ability to conduct a useful & simple Hebrew conversation in three to four months of practicing, and a much more complex one in less than a year of studies.

The nature of studying and acquiring a new language is based upon the practice of the repetitive memorizing of new words while using the proper pronunciation. As well as implementing these words with the correct grammar rules into sentences, and eventually being able to converse with these new tools. We believe that by the nature of this course, which is based on recorded audio and podcast lessons, this goal can easily and conveniently be achieved. We especially designed the lessons to be short and concise and included in each, are sections for you to practice. With a podcast or an audio lesson you have the ability & convenience to listen to the recordings while engaging in other activities such as jogging, working out, exercising, driving, cooking, eating or merely relaxing. We encourage you to make these studies a daily routine; with this your progress is a sure thing!

In addition to the recorded lessons, as a subscriber to this web site you will find a section with comprehensive grammar charts, extra vocabulary, and a dedicated section for those of you who are interested in developing their Hebrew reading skills. These sections are fully interactive. You will always be able to hear our native Hebrew speakers, demonstrating for you the correct way to pronounce the words, the sentences or the grammar rules discussed. We recommend studying by listening to each lesson several times, using the 'pdf' files to review the currently studied material and then using the specific charts in the grammar section for deepening and strengthening your knowledge.

We wish you all a pleasant, enriching and successful experience. We would love to see you in Israel, joining us for a delightful conversation in fluent Hebrew 😊

And now, without further ado, let's start with our #1-B audio lesson:

Let us start by listening to Liat and Eran reading the dialogue we are familiar with from lesson #1-A:

Eran:	shalom.	Hello.	ערן:	שלום.
Liat:	shalom.	Hello.	ליאת:	שלום.
Eran:	ma shmech?	What is your name?	ערן:	מה שמך?
Liat:	Liat.	Liat.	ליאת:	ליאת.
	ma shimcha?	What is your name?		מה שימך?
Eran:	Eran.	Eran	ערן:	ערן.
Liat:	le-hitra-ot Eran.	See you Eran.	ליאת:	להתראות ערן.
	yom nifla!	Have a wonderful day!		יום נפלא!
Eran:	toda.	Thanks.	ערן:	תודה.
	le-hitra-ot Liat.	See you Liat.		להתראות ליאת.
	yom nifla!	Have a wonderful day!		יום נפלא!

This lesson is strongly related to podcast 1-A. We will be studying some extra vocabulary which will help us to be more fluent and articulate when meeting someone, as well as understanding some basic Grammar rules. Let us listen to the same format of dialogue while being attentive to some changes we have made here:

Eran:	shalom.		ערן:	שלום.
Liat:	shalom.		ליאת:	שלום.
Eran:	ma shmech?		ערן:	מה שמך?
Liat:	Liat. ma shimcha?		ליאת:	ליאת. מה שימך?
Eran:	Eran. na-im me-od.		ערן:	ערן. נעים מאוד.
Liat:	na-im me-od gam li.		ליאת:	נעים מאוד גם לי.
Liat:	le-hitra-ot Liat. yom ne-hedar!		ערן:	להתראות ליאת. יום נהדר!
Eran:	toda. le-hitra-ot Eran.		ליאת:	תודה. להתראות ערן.
	yom maksim!			יום מקסים!

Jonathan: Let us listen to this dialogue one more time:

Eran:	shalom.	שלום.	ערן:
Liat:	shalom.	שלום.	ליאת:
Eran:	ma shmech?	מה שמך?	ערן:
Liat:	Liat. ma shimcha?	ליאת. מה שימך?	ליאת:
Eran:	Eran. na-im me-od.	ערן. נעים מאוד.	ערן:
Liat:	na-im me-od gam li.	נעים מאוד גם לי.	ליאת:
Liat:	le-hitra-ot Liat. yom ne-hedar!	להתראות ליאת. יום נהדר!	ערן:
Eran:	toda. le-hitra-ot Eran.	תודה. להתראות ערן.	ליאת:
	yom maksim!	יום מקסים!

Jonathan: As you could probably notice, we had some new words added to this conversation.

Eran, will you please read and translate the first one for us:

Eran: na-im me-od – Very pleased to meet you.

Jonathan: Translating na-im me-od into very pleased to meet you goes under the category of expressions which do not translate just literally, as explained on podcast #1-A. Let's see the reason for that: in a word for word manner of translation na-im is pleased, me-od is very, together they make the translation to be very pleased. Just by that, we are not getting the exact translation of the expression. So for now, let us learn the combination of the words na-im me-od as an expression... which the correct translation to English will be very pleased to meet you. na-im me-od - very pleased to meet you.

Liat: na-im me-od - very pleased to meet you.

On podcast 1- A we had another example of translating an entire expression instead of a word for word translation:

yom nifla – Have a wonderful day.

The combination yom nifla is comprised of the words yom- a day and nifla -wonderful... It is merely a day wonderful or a wonderful day, but the correct expression in English includes the word have, even though it is not literally there in the Hebrew. So:

yom nifla - Have a wonderful day.

That's it! Sometimes we translate an expression rather than the exact words.

Two other expressions we had in this dialogue were:

Eran: yom ne-hedar – Have a magnificent day.

Liat: yom maksim – Have a charming day.

Together with yom nifla we now have three optional ways for wishing someone 'to have a nice day'.

Please feel free to use any of these expressions when saying goodbye to someone.

Another thing we would like to teach you today is the correct way of placing adjectives in the sentence. This is an important rule in which the Hebrew language acts very differently than English. We will refer to this rule as the cheese cream rule. And no! I am not making a mistake here! That is exactly where the difference between Hebrew and English is. The correct way to say it in English is of course cream cheese. The noun follows the adjective. Let us listen to a few examples ...

Eran: In English we say a wonderful day while in Hebrew yom nifla ... 'a day wonderful'.

Liat: In English we say a beautiful child while in Hebrew yeled yafe...'a child beautiful'.

Jonathan: In English we say an exciting lesson while in Hebrew shi-ur meratak...'a lesson exciting'.

Please just remember the mnemonic tool we provided you with: cheese cream and this rule belong to you.

Let us review all the words and expressions we learned in lessons #1-A and 1-B. Eran and Liat will repeat each word twice. Please listen carefully and attentively, as shortly after we will be asking you to be the Hebrew speakers!

shalom	Hello
ma	What is
ma shmech?	What is your name? (when addressing a female)
ma shimcha?	What is your name? (when addressing a male)
na-im me-od	Very pleased to meet you
toda	Thanks
yom	A day
yom nifla	Have a wonderful day
yom ne-hedar	Have a magnificent day
yom maksim	Have a charming day
le-hitra-ot	See you

And now, as promised, your chance to be the Hebrew speakers. Please follow my colleagues' instructions as they will be asking you to translate different words and sentences from English to Hebrew 😊

Say:	Hello	shalom
Say:	What is?	ma
Say:	Your name (when addressing a male)	shimcha
Say:	Your name (when addressing a female)	shmech
Ask a man:	What is your name?	ma shimcha?
Ask a woman:	What is your name?	ma shmech?
Say:	Have a magnificent day	yom ne-hedar
Say:	Thanks	toda
Say:	See you	le-hitra-ot
Say:	Very pleased to meet you	na-im me-od
Say:	Have a wonderful day	yom nifla
Say:	Have a charming day	yom maksim

Jonathan: Now we will conclude today's lesson. toda, Liat and Eran.

Liat and Eran: toda, Yonatan.

Jonathan: Please don't hesitate to listen again to lessons 1-A and 1-B, as you will shortly become very familiar with the way to introduce yourselves in Hebrew. We hope to meet you again soon on podcast number 2-A.

le-hitra-ot!

Eran and Liat: le-hitra-ot!!